BIXI is Montréal's new public bike system. It's the bike that's an alternative means of urban transport. Accessible to everyone, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Take one when you need one, and leave it any station when you arrive at your destination. Bixi stations are frequently located next to the metro stations and are especially numerous around the Mile End neighbourhood. The closest Bixi stations to Tango Fabrika are on St. Viateur, just east of Parc, and on the corner of Hutchison and Fairmount.
